

SCIMITARS SAVE ROYALTY FROM RUDE CITY GAZES

Prince of Jind Guarded at Blackstone.

Unless there are other matters of greater importance to be recorded it is only to adjust the current history of Chicago to this circumstance: A prince of India is visiting us.

In order that this contribution to history may be as expeditious as possible, it is thought suitable to postpone disclosing his majesty's name for the present while other matters of far greater importance are being discussed.

His majesty is quartered in the Blackstone hotel. He is accompanied by his wife, the princess. Likewise there are with him his three small children. The three small children are in the custody of a prim English governess. Also the prince is accompanied by his secretary. And the secretary to the prince is attended in turn by a second secretary. And if it be not carrying the matter on ad infinitum, as one may say, the second secretary is supported by a third secretary.

Still Another Secretary.

The princess carried with her a secretary, too. This one is called Mrs. Mody. Mrs. Mody is accompanied by a maid of honor. And the maid of honor is an East Indian lady and she is dressed in a blue chiffon cloth.

Two more persons are in the party and these much of the entourage is done by Sikh guardsmen. They are all, mysterious, and gloomy. They are clad in white garments, white turbans, and white trousers, the trousers being very tight all the way down to the ankles. They do not wear socks, their feet being protected by sandals. And, most fearsome, they carry long, shiny cut-throats, like cheese knives.

The prince's party occupies nine bedrooms, five bathrooms, a large drawing room, a small drawing room, and some corridors. The party, as the prince's entourage and his habitations.

Here's Name of Prince.

Now the name of the prince is this: Faranah-Dilband-Rasik-ul-Ikhtad-Daud-Inglish-Raja-Rajan Maharaja-Ranbir Singh Rajendra Bahadur, G. C. S. G. G. I. E.

The prince is handsome, perhaps 50, with English clothes. The princess is perhaps 35. She wears a diamond in her nose and she is pretty.

His highness is the Prince of Jind. He is a state of the Punjab. It has a population of 400,000. The income of the Prince of Jind is some $450,000 per year.

The Maharajah and his family came to Chicago Saturday night in care of Mr. Nevins. Mr. Nevins is the man Cook's Tours assigned to guide the Prince of Jind and his family while they see the sights of America.

The prince and the princess arrived at midnight Saturday. Then he ordered something to eat for every one. A cook had been kept in the kitchen for that. Every one had something to eat before they went to bed.

Runs Across Guards.

Two hours later, after all was quiet, there was noise in the hall.

The noise was made by a gentleman who had a room in the same hall with the Prince of Jind, and who had dined late. He turned a corner and nearly collided with a tall Sikh guard and a shimmering snickerer. The latter nearly tore a hole in the hotel getting out of there.

No one except Mr. Nevins from Cook's and the secretaries and the governess were allowed into the rooms of the prince.

SUES SURGEON

IRENE GENNUSA.

Dr. Ione Boen was made defendant in a suit for $25,000 damages, when Irene Gennusa, 1423 West La Moine avenue, demanded that sum as compensation for being forced to forego a career as a singer.

Miss Gennusa charges that Dr. Boen operated on her for diseased tonsils, but instead ruined her throat for singing. The plaintiff possessed a remarkable voice, according to her counsel, Attorney Jay J. McCarthy.

Incidentally, the suit, filed Saturday, avers that Miss Gennusa will be deprived "of the pleasure and companionship of marriage, as her alien voice will now fall to lure and attract a helpmeet."

Prince of Jind. Only the secretaries can see the prince. The maids cannot come in and make the beds or sweep the floors until they beg for many hours.

There is fresh fruit in all the rooms. There are cheeses and cakes on plates in all the rooms and sometimes one may catch a whiff in the hall when the door opens. Also one may catch a whiff of the Sikh guards.

Princess Hides Her Face.

The guards said the princess could not be seen with her face naked. So she sat all Sunday on the floor in her room.

The prince did not stay in his room, though. After he had eaten his lunch he went out to see the sights. Two of his secretaries and the man from Cook's went with him. The prince wears English tweeds and a velvet hat with a cane that has a crooked handle. His pants have very nice creases. His gait is shining black.

While the prince took a walk yesterday the princess had tea at 4:30 o'clock. The waiter who brought the order was very tired. He had been working since 10 o'clock. All that time he had been bringing food to the prince's suite. The orders by 4 o'clock had filled fifteen pages of his order book. The bill was about $100 by that time, the waiter thought. He did not know because he was too tired to count. He had worked an hour and a half more than his regular hours when tea time came. New orders for food were then still being sent from the prince's suite.

Defence Test Is Above Politics.

"Such action definitely places the 'defence test' above politics and prevents its exploitation for political expediency. The patriotic and veteran societies supporting the government's policy are distinctly nonpartisan. Their membership consists of Americans who have banded themselves together to promote the welfare of their country and to support measures like the 'defence test'."

"The cooperation forthcoming from the governors of states is of the same praiseworthy character. Every indication is that their support on Sept. 15 will be nearly unanimous."

"Every day that passes convinces me more and more of the necessity for holding the 'defence test' because of its educational value alike to the defense establishments and to our citizens as a whole."

Poss Make Him Proud.

"The statements regarding it which have commanded so much attention from the press indicate clearly that an honest misunderstanding exists not only of the 'defence test' itself, but even of our defense organization and emergency plans. The very nature of the opposition proves conclusively the need for the test."

ITS FOES PROVE NEED OF DEFENSE DAY, WEEKS SAYS

Thanks Patriotic Societies Who Pledge Help.

(BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)

Washington, D. C., Aug. 10.—(Special.)—Need of the "defence test" scheduled for Sept. 15 is demonstrated by the character of the opposition. Secretary of War Weeks says in a letter today to Mrs. Anthony Wayne Cook, president of the Daughters of the American Revolution, in acknowledgment of a communication pledging the support of twenty-seven veterans and patriotic societies.

Secretary Weeks says that the governors of the states will be nearly unanimous in supporting the war department's program.

"I know that these large and representative organizations must speak directly or indirectly for many millions of Americans," says Secretary Weeks, in referring to the list of societies enumerated by Mrs. Cook as promising their support.

TRIES TO CHOKE DANCER IN HER ROOM AT HOTEL

Attempt Made to Murder Margaret Wood.

Considerable mystery surrounds the assault early yesterday morning on Miss Margaret Wood of New York city, a dancer, appearing at the Chicago theater, who had retired to her room in the Majestic hotel, and was awakened from her sleep by a man slowly strangling her to death, according to the police.

"I was awakened from a sound sleep," said Miss Wood, "by some one choking me. I tried to scream and the man bending over me pressed harder on my throat and I couldn't breathe. I tried to pull at his hands, and just as I felt myself losing consciousness, I drew up my legs and kicked out with all my force. I guess I got him, too, as he loosened his hold long enough for me to scream."

Sgt. Anthony Nagel of the detective bureau questioned the clerk and manager at the hotel as to why they had not reported the matter to the police at once. It is his opinion that the man was a guest at the hotel, and was hiding in the room when Miss Wood returned from the theater.

LIQUOR SHIPS ROUTED BY LIGHT OF SHENANDOAH

Lakehurst, N. J., Aug. 10.—(United News.)—After successfully going through the meeting tests with the U. S. S. Palos in Narragansett bay, the dirigible Shenandoah, pride of the American navy, was landed back here early today.

The landing was without incident. The big vessel was sighted over the field at 1:30 a. m. and soon after word was received that a landing would be attempted.

Later, while cruising above the Atlantic to avoid a storm on shore, the Shenandoah put to flight three rum-running steamers when her searchlight flashed down on them.

CHICAGOANS ARE GUESTS AT HOME OF JOHN W. DAVIS

Nominee Inquires About Outlook in Midwest.

John W. Davis' address of acceptance will be broadcast by station WGN (formerly WDAP), 340 meters, tonight.

By PHILIP KINLEY.

Clarkburg, W. Va., Aug. 10.—[Special.]—The habited calm in the old John W. Davis home on the hill was disturbed today by the feet of many strangers.

Chief among the advance guard of the Democratic host that will fill this valley tomorrow at the Davis notification ceremony was George E. Brennan, a dozen stalwart Democrats from Chicago. They climbed the stairs and reached the deep, cool shade of the old porch into this afternoon, and were ushered into the front parlor, where they were served with grape juice and optimistic conversation.

"Certainly a neat place," said Michael Tros, wiping his forehead and looking around in the dimly lit old room where the candidate and hope of Democracy stood as master and a figure in a proper setting.

"What Davis is 'Nacho Cato,'" said Michael Tros, wiping his forehead and looking around in the dimly lit old room where the candidate and hope of Democracy stood as master and a figure in a proper setting.

the labor vote in Chicago? Think that will hurt the Republicans?"

"I hear the farmers are going to vote the La Follette ticket in Illinois. Well, that will not hurt the Democratic party. The Democrats will win."

Gov. Small is expected to line up with La Follette, thus complicating the issue for the Republicans, who are said to be "scared to death."

Col. A. Sprague, Democratic candidate for United States senator, Congressman Stanley Kuns, Martin O'Brien, Al. Tonny and Horan, Sanitary Trustee James Whalen and T. J. Crowe and Edward J. Kelley, president of the south park board, accompanied Brennan to the Davis home.

Martin L. Luke, Democratic candidate for governor of Wisconsin, was also in the party.

With Smith at Madison Square, these were Democrats who had sat under the Illinois banner at Madison square. Garden voting for Al Smith until the bandwagon turned to Davis. But they are good sports, ready to take off their coats now for Davis, which is more than may be said for many of the Madison workers, of whom there seems to be a scarcity in sight here.

Old scores are forgotten. The question that confronts the party is practical and urgent. Work is needed and hard work.

"Too much talk," says old Dr. J. W. Johnston, Davis' political mentor of many years, "time to get to work, John."

Tom Teggart is not here, but Ed Moore of Ohio arrived today. Gov. Bill Brandon of Alabama, who cast twenty-four votes for Underwood for 100,000, is here and "prone to cast 100,000 votes for Davis now."

the afternoon to look over the scene of the notification.

The program tomorrow opens with a meeting of the national executive committee, where the party organization for the party campaign will be completed; a luncheon to Mr. Davis by the national committee, a parade, two more lunches during the afternoon, and ending with the notification at 9 p. m. and fireworks.

Senator Thomas J. Walsh will notify the candidates. The only other address will be made by Mr. Davis.

La Guardia of New York Comes Out for La Follette

New York, Aug. 10.—[Special.]—Congressman F. H. La Guardia left the Republican party today and became a member of the progressive party, a follower of La Follette and Wheeler. He gives as the reason for leaving the party that he cannot support him in office that he cannot support his principles for a recommitment.

"Gee!" Some Train" says JACKIE COOGAN

Wednesday saw excitement and camera-clicking in the Grand Central Station near the Loop when Jackie Coogan "bought" the Capitol Limited.

With a critical eye he inspected the roomy observation-library car, modern sleeping cars, commodious club car, inviting diners and powerful locomotive.

Up in the cab he took the huge throttle and proudly hung out a sign, "Jackie Coogan, Owner and Chief Engineer."

"Gee! some train!" he said.

And Jackie's opinion is that of thousands of others who have travelled on this popular Washington train.

Its enviable record for service and dependability has made it the popular train to the East.

Try it on your next trip East.

LABOR IS FOR A LA FOLLETTE, BUT NOT EXACTLY BOB

Chief Aim Is to Keep in Ascendancy.

BY DONALD EWING.

Atlantic City, N. J., Aug. 10.—(Special.)—Organized labor, charged by some with crossing its fingers in favoring La Follette, actually is going to do more for him in this campaign than it ever has done for any candidate.

It is going to work harder for the insurgent Wisconsin senator than it did for Bryan in 1900 or for Wilson in 1912. It is going to spend more money, send out more speakers, spread over a greater territory, have them shout loudest, print more circulars, more pamphlets, more posters, and make more banners.

It is going to greater efforts than ever to "deliver" a full labor vote. To put it in five words: Labor is going the limit.

The reason, perhaps not quite obvious at first, becomes a signboard when the thoughts of Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, Matthew Woll and other labor leaders, are divined.

The reason is that labor must keep its ascendancy or surrender to elements it has fought for years. To keep its ascendancy, labor also will greatly increase its political activities in congressional districts, for it is from the winners there that its chief reward must come.

La Follette has induced nearly all of labor's demands, though labor has not endorsed all of his.

Chief among the labor demands is legislation abolishing the strike injunction. A candidate must favor this to get labor's support. Next is legislation to abolish the labor board. These two are paramount.

Other demands are on convict labor, more comprehensive compensation laws, freedom of speech, press, assembly, and association, particularly as affecting strikes—amendment to the constitution, so congress can by two-thirds majority enact laws declared unconstitutional by the United States Supreme court; graduated income and sales taxes and participation in the league of nations.

NATION TO HEAR COOLIDGE TOLD OF NOMINATION

To Broadcast His Speech Over U. S. and Seas.

(BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)

Washington, D. C., Aug. 10.—(Special.)—Practically all details of the arrangements for the ceremony notifying President Coolidge of his nomination, next Thursday night, are now complete. Chairman William M. Butler of the Republican national committee announced today.

Arrangements made for broadcasting the speech, according to telephone company officials, will assure President Coolidge the greatest audience ever addressed by any man in this or any other country. The address will be transmitted direct by long distance telephone to about fifteen high-powered broadcasting stations which will assure the carrying of the President's voice from the Atlantic to the Pacific and to the ships at sea.

Stations to Pick Up Speech.

Among the stations that will pick up the speech of acceptance from the station of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone company here are WGN, Chicago; WELF, New York; WJAR, Providence; KDKA, Pittsburgh; KSD, St. Louis; WDAF, Kansas City; WGR, Buffalo; WNAC, Boston; and WGT, Savannah.

The ceremony will be held at 4 o'clock on the evening of Aug. 14, in Memorial Continental hall, the home of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

President Coolidge's notification ceremony, it was stated, will be in no sense an exclusive affair. The hall will be thrown open to the public at a time yet to be designated and as many as can be accommodated will be seated.

Amplifiers for Overlook.

A large directive in experience and because of the desire on the part of a large number to witness the ceremony, the outside of the hall will be equipped with amplifiers. This assures participation direct by the crowds whom it would be impossible to provide with seats.

The seats that have been reserved are only for sponsors. Republican men and women associated in the conduct of the campaign and for the members of the press, so that the meeting will be to all effects and purposes an open one. Chairman Butler will preside and call the meeting to order as soon after 4 o'clock as possible. The proceedings proper will begin with the usual invocation, whereupon Frank W. Mondell, chairman of the notification committee, will deliver the message of the Cleveland convention to the President.

Defense Day

One of the most vital questions under discussion today is that of national defense. Sound arguments are raised both pro and con, but regardless of what the final decision may be, it is a certainty that eternal vigilance must be exercised to safeguard the country from injustice and violence. Whether disputes are settled by arbitration in a world court or whether military force is employed, it evolves upon the statesmen at the helm to work with constant watchfulness for the interests of the nation.

Just as various questions confront a government, problems of lesser degree challenge a business firm. Competition must be successfully met, patrons must be pleased, prices must be highly satisfactory. As statesmen of our own organization, we are striving with untiring effort to look out for the welfare of our patrons and to serve them with the greatest possible efficiency and courtesy.

8 APPEALS MARK FIRST TESTS OF TAX BOARD LAW

Washington, D. C., Aug. 10.—(Special.)—Appeals from rulings of the commissioner of internal revenue have been filed with the new board of tax appeals in eight cases, and hearings will be set as soon as the formalities are completed.

The eight cases affect the following taxpayers: John H. Parrott, Roanoke, Va.; Everett Knitting Works, Lebanon, N. H.; E. O. Chapman, St. Paul, Minn.; A. H. Stange company, Merrill, Wis.; Clark Malone Realty company, Birmingham, Ala.; Kinsel

Lumber company, Merrill, Wis.; Mary P. Eno, Steffanson, N. Y.; Alamo Motor company, El Paso, Tex.

The cases have been docketed and the next step is the filing of answers to the petitions of appeal within the next few days by the solicitor of the internal revenue bureau. Dates will be then set for the first public hearings. Officials wish to hold the first hearings soon after Aug. 15.

In many cases it will be unnecessary for the board to review in much detail the financial affairs of the taxpayers. The first cases will furnish an example for other taxpayers who are reluctant to have their affairs laid open before the public as to just how much publicity there actually will be.

FORD HAS 10 DAYS TO GET NAME OFF MICHIGAN TICKET

Lansing, Mich., Aug. 10.—(By the Associated Press.)—Henry Ford, six years ago a Democratic candidate for United States senator and now an "involuntary candidate" for the Republican nomination for the same office, has ten days in which to eliminate himself from the lists in the statewide primary Sept. 9.

Charles J. Deland, secretary of state, who accepted nominating petitions for Ford, made this announcement today after obtaining a ruling from the state attorney general's office. Mr. Ford's name will go on the ballot unless word is received from him asking that his name be withdrawn.

The Ford petitions were filed yesterday by Peter Fagan, secretary of the United Utilities commission. Fagan declined to disclose who sponsored the Ford boom, and his chief, William W. Potter, chairman of the commission, who is a candidate for the Republican gubernatorial nomination, disclaimed responsibility.

Fagan brought in petitions containing 14,000 names, although only slightly more than 7,000 were required.

Unless Mr. Ford withdraws his name from the lists, the September primary will find him opposing his former business associate, Senator James Couzens. Candidates will be nominated for a short term as well as the full term. The short term will expire March 4 next.

Bruno Fils, 5, 4117 South Albany avenue, died yesterday from burns received Saturday afternoon when a caisson or boiling tar tipped over on him and his 3 year old brother, Stanley, at 41st street and Albany avenue. The younger child also was severely burned.

The huge kettle, mounted on wheels, had been left unguarded by workmen repairing the streets when they went to lunch. The older child, using the spokes of one of the wheels as a ladder, had climbed up to peer into the kettle, when he lost his balance and fell, knocking his brother down. Both children rolled under the kettle as it tipped and the boiling liquid poured down upon them.

CHICAGO HARBOR
PLAN MENACED
BY NEW MARKET

Loss to Chicago of its best water terminal and a consequent endangering of the Illinois waterway and the Lakes-to-the-Gulf waterway projects was stressed yesterday by Maj. Rufus W. Putnam, army engineer for the Chicago district. He declared that with the commission market moving from South Water street to 31st street and the river, a blow had been dealt to both projects.

To make the best of it now, Maj. Putnam declared, quick action should be taken to acquire the other needed sites. In a previous bulletin, the U. S. engineer office has suggested three locations as the best sites for interchange of freight between trucks and barges. These are at North avenue, near Lake street, and immediately west of the South Ashland avenue bridge near 31st street.

His bulletin then says: "The North avenue site is owned by the United States government and may be made available when necessary. The Lake street site is owned privately and is now being held for sale at a not unreasonable figure. How long this condition will continue or how long before some interests will purchase and use this property for other purposes is of course not known."

"The location at Ashland avenue and 31st street was suggested as being suitable for a terminal for interchange between barges and rail, as well as between large and truck. This is the only location where both these operations can be conducted on an equal basis, with other carriers at regard to terminal costs. It is also the location nearest the center of the city where belt line railroad service is available to traffic.

"The state of Illinois is now engaged in constructing the Illinois waterway. The people voted $20,000,000 that this work might be carried to completion. Are they willing to stand by and see it thrown away? Literally thrown away it will be if more of the possible terminal sites at Chicago are allowed to be disposed of for other purposes.

"The margin between transportation costs by rail and by water is not so great but what it all can be very easily consumed by terminal costs.

"Chicago can make or break the Illinois waterway project and the Lakes-to-the-Gulf waterway as well. These projects depend entirely upon her policy and action with respect to this terminal situation."

MR. CROWLEY, OUT OF BASTILE, SAYS
ONCE IS ENOUGH

Mr. Lawrence J. Crowley, who brought distinction to Joliet and base to Chicago, emerged from his retirement in the House of Correction yesterday morning. He said he would not resume either his former business or his name of "Butch," but would be known from now on as Mr. Crowley.

His several passengers touring car swarmed him. The elderly chauffeur sat at attention while Chief Clerk Matthew Cooley was checking Crowley out of the institution to which he was sentenced for six months on a plea of guilty to a charge of manufacturing and selling beer.

His sentence, with twenty-five days off for good behavior, expired at midnight but there was no official present at that time to sign the release papers. Mr. Crowley, however, said he slept well during his last night in jail and that he meant it to be his last night or day in jail.

Novel Winter Coats Typify
The Unusual August Values

THE first model pictured is of a soft rich wool in verdant green. Its fluffy band of natural lynx forms the very smart tunic effect you will note at one side. The other, of two-tone shutter green homespun, represents the fashionable combination idea, sometimes plaids being used with plain colors instead of the two shades of the same tone. It has, too, the very newest muskrat banding.

During this month, special purchases for August selling present most attractive savings in Women's new fall and winter Coats, at a wide price range.

This Bengaline Gown Is New
In Fabric, Line and Color

THE decided vogue of bengaline, faille and ottoman silks in the advanced French models, the prominence of very long, slender tunic and chemise effects, the partiality of the famous designers for cranberry red, artichoke green and muskrat brown are notable in the Paris inspiration of this gown.

The row of buttons from neck to hem at the back accents the length of line, the bands of fur outlining the tunic contrast with the flounced black satin slip beneath.

Other fall models disclose the tailored coat styles, many with the ultra smart combining of plaids with the plain woolen fabrics. And new designs are arriving every day.

The Three-cornered Scarf
Is Attached to the Turban

MORE than one striking tendency is visible in this new design from the French Salon—the smart black and white treatment—lustrous black satin with white leather—the off-the-face shape, with slight width at each side, and most of all, the use of the scarf. Attached to the crown, it is a novel three-cornered effect of black satin, appliqued with white leather, lined with white georgette.

INCONSISTENCY OF THE SOAP BOXER.

Aug. 2.—The other night at the Wilton avenue I heard a colorful present state of government.
He said we were the most treated people in the world today. We fools, the hot pot, are pressed farther each day into the hands of capitalists. In fact,

would at our immigration laws, come into America? If these did think, they would stand on the dangers and pitfalls that await in America.

the fanatic are not that crazy;

EVOLVING BACKWARD.

Aug. 4.—On Feb. 24, 1814, a high churchman met in solemn at Rome to consider Galileo's results of Copernicus' theory that the earth revolved around the sun instead of around the earth. After deep debate they declared this doctrine heretical in philosophy and fore-doomed because expressly contrary to Holy Scripture.

scientific aspects of this question worry them much. Any fool could see that the sun moved across the heavens west to east once daily, and as for the size and bulk of the earth about like a top, the idea was obvious. What these gentlemen had in mind was the effect this new idea would have on the church the Copernican theory became known and believed. Surely it reflected discredit on Holy Writ, could Joshua have commanded the sun to stand still if it had not been so? This certainly was a devastating blow for the church by the Renaissance.
However, both the church and science seem to have survived and are reconciled their differences satisfactorily.
I pardon the above remarks, are scraps of nothing in person. What I really started out to do was to point out the absurdity of considering the advisability of giving state support from schools teach evolution.

AUSTRIAN POLICE REVEAL RED PLOT TO STIR BALKANS

BY JOHN CLAYTON.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
VIENNA, Aug. 10.—Charges that Vienna is the center of communist activities for the Balkans, made by the Wiener Journal this morning, were substantiated in detail by Austrian officials in statements to THE TRIBUNE today. The existence of a $40,000,000 gold ruble ($20,000,000) fund for promoting unrest and revolt in the Balkan states as the possible forerunner of a new war and world revolution was disclosed.

The Bolshevik government of Russia has long held the theory that without a war a world revolution is impossible. After the failure of the German revolution, which they expected would bring about allied intervention and possibly a new world conflict, the Russians have turned their attention to that most fertile of fields for old man Marx—the little countries of the Balkan peninsula.

Send Abroad Propagandists.
Since the resumption of relations between Austria and Russia the soviets have sent their ablest propaganda experts to Vienna to direct propaganda work throughout Europe, chiefly in the Balkans. Both the state and city governments have kept the closest watch on their activities. Several times Bolshevik agents have been expelled, but despite this, the work has been carried on so successfully that the Balkans are closer to a serious outbreak than at any time since 1918.

Money for financing the Bulgarian communists, who drive through the country, plundering villages and attacking small garrisons, first finds its way to Vienna, where it is distributed through trusted agents.

Form Balkan Committee.
So serious has the situation become that the council of Jugo-Slav ministers

DISAPPEARS

HELEN CHAMALES.

Seventeen year old Helen Chamales, niece of Louis Chamales, 3168 East 54th street, and of Tom Chamales, formerly of the Green Mills gardens, vanished from the home of her uncle Louis several days ago.

It was feared that she was the victim of white slavery and a reward of $1,000 was offered for her return. Louis now believes, however, that she has either returned to her father's home in Columbus, O., or has obtained employment as a stenographer here in the city, hiding for fear her relations will make her give up her position.

today decided that the present Bulgarian government is in grave danger. The Balkan committee of communists was organized late last year. In January the police raided their center and expelled several agitators. The tentacles of this nefarious organization stretch in all directions from Vienna. In Bulgaria, Roumania, Jugo-Slavia, Greece, and Czechoslovakia agitators look toward Vienna for instructions and funds. The financial support of the Macedonian committee bands which today threaten the peace of the Balkans also probably originates in the communist center here.

ALGONQUIN AND ICE FUNDS GET DECIDED BOOST

Funds for free ice and Camp Algonquin take a big jump upward this morning. It is the biggest day of the year for the suffering families in the tenement district that are given relief from the funds collected.

Tom Tansow announced the net receipts of the baseball game staged July 27 are $1,922.27. That means thousands of pounds of ice will be distributed among Chicago's poor, and many mothers and children will be sent to Camp Algonquin. It is a great victory for these destitute people. The amount will be divided equally between the two funds which will total now $3,948.95.

How It Was Accomplished.
Many took part to make this event a success. Here is how it was done: Girls of Tom Tansow's team sold $440 worth of tickets.

A group of debutantes and socially prominent people in Lake Forest with Mrs. Charles H. Chadwick as their chairman sold boxes and tickets. Their efforts netted $355.

Tickets sold by the public service bureau and through the mails amounted to $475.50.

The girls of the "Artists and Models" company now playing at the Apollo theater realized $119.66 from the sale of programs.

At the gate at the Cubs' park the box office receipts were $799.75.

Of course selling tickets and programs was not the only enterprise that contributed to the affair.

Liberal in Assistance.
The Cubs' park was donated by the club's president, William Veeck, the Big Ventilating company's hand played gaily, and the baseball team, the Algonquin Indians and the Tansow team staged a hitting jamboree that delighted the patrons.

In addition, Frank Willard, who draws Moon Mullins; Carl Ed, creator of Harold Teen; Gear Williams, cartoonist; Sidney Smith, creator of Andy Dumpe; Carey Orr, cartoonist; Richard Henry Little, conductor of the Line o' Type or Two, and Harvey Woodruff of "Help! Help!" fame, were on hand to do their bit.

Despite this splendid showing the funds do not keep pace with those in need. More families are found each day by Tom Tansow's agents that must be cared for. The money must continue to come in. There must be no let up.

Send your contributions to Tom Tansow, 7 South Dearborn street. Mark them for either fund. Remember there are more in need than the funds can take care of.

$3,000,000 For Better Service

THE improvement program of the Chicago Surface Lines this year includes:

The addition of 100 new cars of the latest model.
The re-routing of cars in the loop.
The construction of several line extensions.

New cars and scientific revision of schedules now in progress will make possible a substantial increase in service. Re-routing of cars in the loop will lessen congestion, if there is the proper co-operation on the part of other traffic, and will benefit street car riders by providing more through routes and speedier transportation.

A three million dollar improvement program at a time when retrenchment is being practiced by the business world in general is sufficient proof of the desire of the Surface Lines to keep pace with growing traffic demands of Chicago.

Service on the system has been increased over 8 per cent during the past eighteen months and equipment and tracks were never in such good condition.

Those who talk of obsolescence in connection with Chicago's street car system are not familiar with the Surface Lines of today.

No office building ever received such tremendous international advance publicity as was won for The Tribune Tower by the architectural competition for $100,000 in prizes. As the supreme example of artistic achievement in skyscraper construction Tribune Tower is destined to be one of the famous buildings of the world. Furthermore, upwards of a million dollars a year will be spent by The Tribune and subsidiaries advertising themselves and therefore this location.

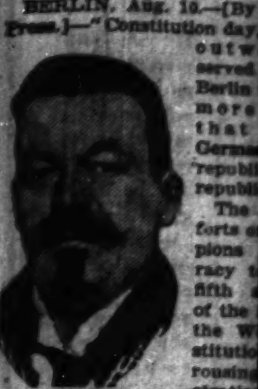

Tribune Tower is being built with the idea that the interior must be worthy of the exterior. Bronze hardware, cork tile on the office floors, marble corridors, Mexican mahogany and black walnut cabinet work will make the office space distinctive.

Eleven floors (13 to 23) are now being rented to desirable tenants for occupancy May 1st, 1925.

GERMAN EAGLES FAILS TO FOR REPUBLIC

"Constitution Day in Berlin a Flare"

BERLIN, Aug. 10.—(By Press.)—Constitution day, observed today, was a day of flare in Berlin. The republicans were out in force, and a number of the old monarchists were in the streets. The republicans were out in force, and a number of the old monarchists were in the streets. The republicans were out in force, and a number of the old monarchists were in the streets.

GERMAN EAGLE FAILS TO YELL FOR REPUBLIC

"Constitution Day" Fete
in Berlin a Flivver.

BERLIN, Aug. 10.—(By Associated Press.)—"Constitution day," as it was outwardly observed in Greater Berlin today, once more suggested that in Berlin Germany is "a republic without republicans."

The sturdy efforts of the champions of democracy to turn the fifth anniversary of the adoption of the Weimar constitution into a rousing demonstration for the young republic and a militant challenge to the nationalists and the Bavarian Fascist met with only a sluggish response in Berlin, where the republican colors were only sparingly displayed and a scant 3,000 men, women, and children joined in a public parade. Numerous private premises saw the old monarchical colors, seemingly in defiant challenge to the republican standard.

Efforts to stimulate the production and sale of the new republican colors during the past fortnight apparently met with indifferent response. There was no demand for them in the shops. Caustic Editorial Churches. German democracy's apparently rocky road affords the nationalist organs opportunity for caustic editorial chuckles and vicious flings at the Weimar constitution. The republican form of government and the parliamentary system are totally unsuited to the needs of the German people, in the opinion of the Kreuzzeitung, the venerable monarchial journal, which declares the Weimar constitution an obstruction in the path of the German people and calls for a return to the methods of Bismarck. This newspaper strenuously objects to having the republican colors hoisted over the imperial palaces, saying these still are the property of the Hohenzollerns. A revision and improvement of the constitution of Weimar can be effected only through the process of historical evolution, in the opinion of the Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung, which assumes that current indifference to the patriotic efforts to make "Constitution day" a national fete day does not spring from outspoken hostility to the republic's charter, which at least has the merit of having proven a living symbol of German unity in the critical period following the revolution.

Liberals Not Disheartened. Staunch optimism is reflected in the editorials appearing in the Liberal and Socialistic press, which are anything but but disheartened at the uphill task confronting German democracy. These newspapers see the republic's salvation in the nation's youth.

President Ebert and the members of the Prussian ministry led the celebration in Munster, Westphalia. There were numerous demonstrations staged by the new republican leagues of "Black, Red and Gold" throughout Germany. Reports received indicate that these were liberally attended, especially one in Munich, Bavaria, where the Clerical, Democratic and Socialist parties united in observing the day, notwithstanding the police embargo on open air meetings.

The German government will officially commemorate "Constitution day" tomorrow in a series of public ceremonies in which President Ebert, members of the cabinet and members of the reichstag will take part.

WORSHIPERS TOO NOISY, HALED TO NIGHT COURT

Judge Max Withers managed from his bed to hold midnight court in Evanston last night when the noisy congregation of the Pentecostal Assembly of God at 1815 Lake street—nine colored and three white—were arrested on complaint of William Dunfries, who lives across the street from the church at 1834 Lake street. Dunfries and his wife complained the members of the congregation clapped their hands, sang and jumped up and down all night so they could not sleep. After being released on bond the prisoners closed their eyes, raised their right hands and began singing. The judge ordered the lights turned out.

TAYLOR TO MEET SARMENTO AT AURORA TONIGHT

BY WALTER ECKERSALL.
Weather permitting, the ten round bout between Bud Taylor of Torrance, Ind., and Peter Sarmento, of Chicago, will be held in the little place at Aurora tonight. The bout originally was scheduled for last Friday, but was postponed because of the heavy rain.

Taylor and Sarmento took light workouts yesterday and are well under 120 pounds, the figure they have agreed to weigh at 1 o'clock in Aurora where all other bouts on this card will make the required poundage. The extra days of training have left the two little boxers in better condition and nothing but another heavy rain will prevent boxing fans from seeing what should be one of the best bouts staged in the vicinity of Chicago this summer.

Both Are Eager.
Premier Jim Mullin may use the popular winner right back with the able opponent and it is a certainty the victor will receive flattering offers from all sections of the country. Both realists will depend upon the result and they are eager to trade punches.

Yesterday asserted his shoulder entirely has mended and he will swing his right as well as the left to pile up the points necessary to win the very close Sarmento, however, will be in the all the time and his ability is too well known for comment.

Other bouts will support the main event. In the eight round semi-finals, Dandy Dillon of St. Paul will take on Ray Miller of the west side at 135 pounds. The other eight rounds will feature Joe McCarb, former champion of New York and Johnny Murphy of Pullman. They will scale 140 pounds.

To Run Special Trains.
Willie Brown and George Dusenman, local 154 pounders, will open the show in a four round engagement, to be followed by another four round contest between Dick Sylvester and Johnny Hagels local heavyweight. The other bouts will be boxing together.

Special trains will be run over the Aurora and Elmhurst terminal at 6:30 and 7 o'clock this evening, daylight saving time.

A majority of local boxing fans, fighters and their managers have been to the arena at Elmhurst, Ill., to see the fight between Willie Brown and George Dusenman.

THEY'RE PEPPING UP DEMPSEY FOR BOUT THIS YEAR
New York, Aug. 10.—(Special.)—Despite previous declarations that Jack Dempsey would not defend his world's heavyweight championship this year, the possibility that the titleholder would engage in one bout, either in this country or in Europe, developed over the week-end, leading added interest to the clash between Harry Wills and Luis Firpo in Jersey City on Sept. 11.

Premier Rex Rickard announced that he had received a telegram from Dempsey, who is in Los Angeles, containing the information that Dempsey planned to come to this city for the Wills-Firpo struggle, and adding that the champion was hopeful of being ready to defend his title against the winner in a bout in October, if Rickard agreed to undertake the venture as an outdoor attraction at that time of the year.

YANKS LOSE TO IRISH HURLERS
IN DUBLINGAMES
DUBLIN, Aug. 10.—In the final of the international hurling contest at the Thellicken games this afternoon Ireland defeated the United States 4 goals and 4 points to 1 goal and 1 point. It was the finest contest witnessed in Dublin for years.

The Americans played a great game and were unfortunate in not being able to run up a higher score. They were better in the second half than in the first, but were unable to overcome the lead obtained by the Irishmen. The game was played on a very muddy field, and the Irish team, led by John Devoy of New York.

FARM AND GARDEN
BY FRANK RISWAIN

MARL BEDS IN WISCONSIN.

STEVENS POINT, Wis., Aug. 10.—(Special.)—Discovering marl beds in the lakes throughout this section has been like finding gold to farmers who are using this material as a substitute for limestone. Badger farmers see the possibilities of reclaiming thousands of acres of worn-out sandy land, in the districts immediately around the lakes filled with deposits of marl, which sweetens the soil and makes possible the growing of crops, especially alfalfa, clovers and soy beans.

More than half a dozen excavating companies are at work dragging the material out of the lakes and dumping it on the shores to dry. This gray, muddy looking material, commonly referred to by farmers as white gold, is being hauled away by the tons and spread over the land.

This year is the first that farmers have really become enthusiastic over the value of this material. They were at first skeptical. Last year many boys were spread on the land and the results are showing up in the harvesting of this year's crops. Enormous yields are being harvested from fields that would hardly grow a crop before.

H. R. Noble, pioneer in the use of marl, says there are millions and millions of tons of it would be impossible to estimate the amount available. There is an unlimited supply of it in thirty or forty lakes here in Portage county. It is found in various parts of the state, but is especially common in the lakes of Waubesa, Douglas, Green, Koshong and Waubesa counties.

RACE FANS SPECULATE ON CHICAGO SPECIAL

BY FRENCH LANE.
Racegoers in Chicago are already beginning to speculate on the probable field that will parade to the post at Hawthorne in the $15,000 Chicago special, an all age race, that is down for decision on the afternoon of Aug. 23. Chacot, one of the greatest distance runners in Kentucky, has already been entered by Hal Price Headley, Spot Cash, the best horse ever of the present season, in Canada, has been nominated by his owner James Healy who is expected at Hawthorne early this week with fifteen head of horses.

Track Superintendent Billy Myers left yesterday for Saratoga to accept the entries of eastern horses. His first visit will be with Admiral Cary T. Drayton, when a special invitation will be extended him to ship his great four year old, My Own, here for the race.

My Own Shows Good.
My Own has been showing great class in recent eastern races and unless Zev or Grey Lac come to the front soon will have strangle hold on the eastern title before Saratoga closes.

It is also expected that Sam Hildreth will agree to send at least one of the Hancock stars here, and there may be other eastern candidates for the Chicago race before Myers returns late this week. Black Gold is also eligible and while Trainer Webb has not indicated whether or not he will return to Hawthorne, he has been reported from Latonia, where the Derby winner is quartered, that Webb looks with favor on the Chicago engagement.

Lively Week Here.
While entries for the rich race coming in during the next few days will occupy the chief interest at Hawthorne the Chicago season goes into one of its most lively weeks today.

A stellar Monday card has been arranged, and as improved track conditions are in sight the sport should show an improvement over last week. The Rainbow Garden handicap, a cup race, is down for decision tomorrow. It will be a dash of five and a half furlongs and the early entries include the best sprinters that have yet come together in any one race at Hawthorne. Sandoz and The Hunt have both been placed in nomination and other eligible include Pipard Pool, Bourbon Boy, Cloughjordan, Pricemaker, Setting Sun, Brunswick, Marquette, King's Ransom, Judge Pryor, The Australian, Quince Garden, and Keegan.

GIRL'S CHANNEL SWIM DEFERRED

DOVER, England, Aug. 10.—Lillian Harrison, the Argentine woman swimmer, who anticipates a swim across the channel from Cape Grimes on the French side to the English shore, did not make her start today, owing to unfavorable sea conditions. The Dover Pilot says Miss Harrison will take to the water tomorrow at noon.

Laporte Plans Harness

Laporte, Ind., Aug. 10.—Laporte's annual fair, opening Aug. 26 will have a racing program that will attract horsemen from all over this part of the state. Added money will be added to the purses and thus insure a large field of entries. Many of the horses entered at South Bend for the Interstate fair will be brought here at the conclusion of that meeting.

500 FANS SEE FIRPO DO HIS STUFF IN RAIN
BY HARRY NEWMAN.

Saratoga Springs, N. Y., Aug. 10.—(Special.)—A thunderstorm of the mid-Atlantic variety broke over Saratoga lake this afternoon just about the time Luis Firpo usually does his daily down and the downpour, which included hailstones, drove Firpo, his sparring partners, and the 500 spectators who had gathered to see him, to shelter.

It looked like it might rain all night, and Firpo shook his head mournfully as he ducked to his porch. The rain only lasted an hour and Luis answered the clamor of those who had bought tickets and sat his stuff.

A light rain fell while Luis was working, but the crowd stuck it out and got an extra bit of exhibition for its patience. Luis boxed five rounds instead of the usual four. He munched around quite merrily with Bill Tate for three rounds and took on his countryman, Ferrara, for a brace of lively sessions.

Firpo hopped out of the hay early this morning and collected several members of his crew started off on the road. Firpo continues to keep himself in shape, but manages to keep pace with the rest of the gang.

WILLS WORKS HARD
BY JACK FARRELL.

Southampton, N. Y., Aug. 10.—(Special.)—This was anything but a day of rest for Harry Wills. Inspired by the promise of the largest crowd of society folk that has visited his training camp at Jones' casino on the shore of Longue Bay since he started his preparatory work for his battle with Luis Firpo, the slim Senegambian worked until the perspiration trickled freely from his chin.

Harry doesn't good much hard work to put him in fighting trim, although he weighs 223 pounds, or ten more than he scaled the night he beat Bartley Macpherson, there isn't an ounce of superfluous flesh visible on his exterior.

Wills' morning routine consists of a three mile hike with "Champion" a Boston bull and camp mascot. And here is a job for the folk who contend that smoking is injurious to those athletically inclined. Harry smokes four cigars a day, as he has for the ten years in training and out. It has never interfered with his wind, he says.

200 Nags and Pop Geers

South Bend, Ind., Aug. 10.—With a card of fifteen events, including three $1,000 stake races, the Interstate fair, Aug. 19-24, bids fair to present the most attractive racing card ever witnessed in this part of the state. Between 150 and 200 horses have been entered. The string of horses under the control of the veteran, "Pop" Geers, will be here.

BILTMORE GOLF TO HEATH.
Asheville, N. C., Aug. 10.—Jack Heath of Charlotte was the guest of honor at club dinner invitation given tomorrow here yesterday by defeating T. W. Palmer, Phila. Fin, in the final round 6 and 4.

Cliff Woodbury Wins 3 Races at Crown Point

Cliff Woodbury, driving a Frontenac, won three races at the Crown Point speedway yesterday, and set a track record. He was preceded for honors by Sonny Talamont, who cleaned up the two light car events, and for a time was dangerous to Woodbury in the free for all.

Two crashes and two near-crashes combined with desperate driving on the turns served to keep the crowd on its feet throughout the meet. On the third lap of the first race T. W. Pearson was crowded off the track in a brush with Talamont, and went through the fence, his car turning over several times. Al Coty went through the fence near the same spot in the next event. Neither driver was hurt, but the cars were smashed. Sonny Talamont skidded completely around twice, but remained upright, and completed his race, finishing out of the money, however.

Woodbury made a lap of the half mile track in the time trials in the record time of 23. He also made the fastest time in the five mile race, winning the second event in 64.5 miles, cars over 500 cc. in—won by Sonny Talamont, Ford, 3d. Cadillac, 2d. Time, 5:08.

Washington, Aug. 10.—The Senators pushed the White Sox back into sixth place today by beating the Yankees, 7 to 1.

The Indians knocked Gaston from the box in the fourth inning. The Yankees' run came in the first after two were out, on a pass to Ruth and singles by Meusel and Papp.

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.
Due to the presence of George Morridge, always a bothersome fellow, there wasn't much doing in the way of White Sox hits yesterday, while, on the other hand, the Senators were exceedingly busy trying to knock down Comiskey's Yankees, and the result was that the south side favorites had to take it on the run before about 14,000 admirers. The score was 4 to 2, and it dropped the Sox back a notch, to sixth place.

The Senators made a nuisance of themselves by insisting on extra base hits or nothing. They uncorked only one home run against the Yankees, but five were doubles and two were triples. Along with these fence-fence singles, they enjoyed the aid of four passes, and that they did not do more business at the run counter can be attributed to the fact that the Sox cut them short with double plays on three different occasions. Comiskey also helped by whiffing six men, some of them at critical times.

Sox-Keep on Trying.
Although the Sox were somewhat negligent about padding their batting averages, they were right in the game with both feet until the very finish. After eight rounds of toll they were in arrears by only 2 to 1, but in the ninth Comiskey took a hand, because of the employment of a pinch hitter for Mike, and the usually able relief expert was slapped for two more runs. Then the Sox popped up and tried to make something interesting in the home final, but after one run had scored, Morridge turned out the lights and the folks went home.

The exact damage to Morridge's reputation as a southpaw of skill was six hits. Four of these were brought to light in the first four innings and the other two in the ninth, then being a string of four hitless rounds in between. Not unlike the Senators, the Sox also were inclined toward extra bases, two of the top being doubles and one a triple. The similarity also extended to double plays, the Sox being the victims of two of them as part payment for the three they perpetrated on the visitors.

Senators Score in First.
Hitting for extra bases started right at the outset. With one gone in the first frame Harris bounced one past Mostil for three bases. Rice followed this incident with a smash that went flying down the third base line with the speed of a scared cat. Harris snatched home on the safety and Rice halted at second where he was doubled a moment later when Sheely appeared a line drive off the bat of McNeely, recently purchased from Sacramento, Cal. for $50,000 (Mex.).

In the opening stand of the Sox Mostil batted a double to right and scored on a sacrifice bunt and an infield out. The two hurriers then settled down and worked a couple of tight rounds, but in the fourth Mike tottered a bit. He passed Harris, but that was wiped out because of a shooting catch by Hopper that ended in a double play. Then McNeely doubled to center, the ball taking a jazy hop past Mostil, and the Sox scored on a single by Judge. Collins gave the Sox a chance to tie it again in the home half by leading off with a single, but Sheely grounded into a twin killing.

Sox Rally in Ninth.
When Connally appeared in the ninth Judge greeted him with a two bagger past third on the first ball pitched. Connally's next pitch was so wild that it went into the stand back of the plate, so Judge was entitled to stroll home. Then Blaine walked, stole second and counted on a single by Morridge.

Hopper was responsible for starting the belated rally of the Sox. He singled with one gone in the home final and rode home on a triple that Collins pitched in right field. Then when Sheely drew a pass it looked as if something good was going to happen, but Falk failed to center and Kaum grounded into a force play to end it.

The Sox departed last night for Flint, Mich., where they play an exhibition game today. From there they proceed to Boston to open their last eastern trip on Wednesday, Blankenship, Leverette, and McClellan did not accompany the gang.

CUBS STARS WIN TWO.
The Cubs took both games of a double header from the Nationals at the latter park yesterday, 10 to 2 and 11 to 1.

Thin Neck—Small Wing.

NEW YORK.—(Special Correspondence.)—You may have wondered why the wings of wing collars come in different sizes, possibly putting it down as a whim of the manufacturer's. As a matter of fact, the various sizes of the wings are to help you look well when you wear a collar of that description, and all you have to do is select the wing that will best become your peculiar or particular style of beauty.

For instance, for the man with the thin neck there is but one correct style of wing, and that is the collar with the small tabs. The big tabs are out of proportion on a scrawny neck, and tend to emphasize the defect.

Fashionism.

A light gray suit with or without stripes is undoubtedly one of the smartest of the season. It is one of the

TRIBUNE COOK BOOK

BY JANE EDDINGTON.

Monday Morning Breakfast.

It looks like bad management, or lack of discipline somewhere, when papa or Tommy or Jennie have, as regularly as the week comes around, to go to the delicatessen on Monday morning before anybody in the family can have breakfast. It seems the more so when molasses, peaches and blueberries will keep for several days, and when there are likely to be freshly made jams and jellies, and when, as all the year through, it is easy to have a cereal.

If the bread runs low over Sunday, learn to lay in a larger supply. Those who make their own breads usually have a larger supply than those who buy, and a greater variety. But with a package of white cornmeal or the quicker oatmeal on hand, and cream or milk arriving via the milkman, toast can be diagnosed with for one morning in the week, although it is one breakfast item of which we never tire.

As for the cereal, with four to be provided for, put one cup of white corn meal into the top of the double boiler with four cups of water and a teaspoon of salt, as soon as you are out of bed, Mrs. Breakfast-Getter. Set it into the water bath and let it cook as long as you can, or about three-fourths of an hour. Mold any leftover in duplicate with cold water and use for dessert.

All this has been said in order to lead up to the exhortation: Do not be stingy with your fresh jams and jellies. At no time are they so delicious as when first made. Summer is when we need fruit in all its variety most. Next summer will provide for itself, and what you put up now will not be half as good then as now.

Muriel McCormick Visits Grandfather, John D. Rockefeller

BY PANDORA.

Muriel McCormick certainly goes her way with less heralding than would seem possible for the representative of two such prominent families as the Rockefellers and the McCormicks.

She has been spending a peaceful summer with the George A. McKinnocks at their Lake Forest home, avoiding most of the excitement of society as heartily relished by many of her youthful contemporaries. Occasionally she ventures forth to a gay party, but I have heard her remark "such good in a crowd." Yet her close friends know her for a stimulating and entirely original young person.

With the McKinnocks she journeyed north last month for a fortnight at the Albert B. Dicks summer camp in Wisconsin. And hardly had they returned than she and Mrs. McKinnock pointed their footsteps eastward. In the course of their wanderings, they went for a few days to Clinton, N. Y., a hostess at the Rockefellers, Muriel's maternal grandfather, spends the winter days.

Eighty-five years of joys and sorrows of trials and compensations have shaped the man whose name is familiar to people in distant corners of the globe, but there exists between him and his young granddaughter a beautiful bond of love and understanding. They take equal delight in each other's company, and it is no wonder that Muriel counts her visits with him one of the pleasantest events of the summer. By the way, it is the daughter of this alert member of the rising generation for preceding generations that made Muriel and her grandmother "paternal," this time—such devoted companions during the lifetime of the late Madame Cyrus McCormick.

I understand the McKinnocks and their young guest are considering taking a trip abroad together some time in the next few weeks. They enjoy these jaunts to bits, and always come back with amusing and interesting tales of their adventures.

The Adolescent Girl Needs Understanding

Mother Most of All

BY DORIS BLAKE.

Anna is 16, and "so unhappy she wishes she could end it all." Anna went to the store to do some shopping for her mother the other afternoon. On the way back she met a school boy acquaintance. He walked home with her. They stood talking for a few moments outside the door. They talked about what they were going to do when they got through school. About the recent pictures they had seen. About the girls and boys of their common acquaintance.

When Anna went indoors upon the penetrating command of her mother she was greeted with: "What do you mean by standing out there in front of my house like that. You're getting to be regular street walkers! You keep away from boys!"

Anna said: "Did I do anything wrong walking home with that boy? I cannot see it. I cannot understand my mother, the way she treats me." In an age when youth is so generally credited with having its own mind in everything, Anna's mother may stand out as an exceptional parent. Yet, I doubt if a single day goes by when she does not in one way or another bring me a tale of conflict between parent and the adolescent girl or boy; more particularly, the story of a daughter.

The boy even at this tender age appears to be able to usurp the man's prerogative and escape the dominion of the mother is over. The awakening of interest in the opposite sex is one of the important characteristics of the period of adolescence. It is perfectly natural and perfectly normal that girls and boys should take an interest in one another.

With the physical development taking place in the girl, there is a general mental turmoil and confusion. The girl may feel her mother is trying to hold her back from pleasure. This is the age of young womanhood when an understanding mother is needed as in no other period of her life. If the girl is to show signs of willfulness, as frequently happens, what she needs is not a broken will, but a training in matter of principles.

There are so many good books on the subject. The girl needs a book that is not a broken will, but a training in matter of principles. There are so many good books on the subject. The girl needs a book that is not a broken will, but a training in matter of principles.

DORIS BLAKE ANSWERS

"Dear Miss Blake: Will you please tell me how I may be introduced to a girl who is in another class in the school I attend? We both graduated at this term, and I would like to speak to her before we graduate. I know a girl friend of hers. Should I ask her girl friend to introduce us? If not, what should I do?" FRANK.

Yes, Frank, if I were you I would arrange with the girl you know to have her introduce you to the one you are anxious to meet. I am sure she would be glad to do it for you and for her friend. It is the only thing to do, as if you were to attempt to speak to her without the formality of an introduction you might find yourself in her bad graces.

Don't Spoil It.

"Dear Miss Blake: I am 19 and deeply in love with a girl 15. I have been going with her about six months. She is friendly and sociable, but to me cold. She's forever inviting me to her house and wants me to escort her out, but she is cold to me. I lack the nerve to ask her if she loves me or places to tell me how I may best find out if she cares for me."

Bobby.

Bobby, the girl has the proper idea of things and realizes that were she to permit such a thing as kissing you would lose respect for her. It is apparent that she likes you, Bobby, or she wouldn't invite you to her home or wish to be seen with you."

Bow and Streamers Still Belong Under the Moon

by Corinne Lowe

NEW YORK.—(Special Correspondence.)—Another of the loop sided evening frocks! In spite of the many evening models which pursue their career independently of any fashion statement, the bow and streamers of ribbon or elaborate fabric still have a place under the moon. Especially is this true of the evening gowns which employ a big bow of ribbon in the back to carry out that impression of the eighties which was made by a few of the French models imported this year.

In this case the loop of gold cloth is the one digression permitted a gown which relies upon the beauty of its fabric to alone for simplicity of line. These fabrics consist of a cloth of gold silk over which is placed a slip of fine brown net. The net is treated to an all-over design in gold embroidery, and again the metallic suggestion is followed in the small gold beads outlining corseage and scalloped hemline.

Many of the most elaborate of summer evening gowns are made of gold lace. These often complete a long corseage with a skirt which is perhaps peaked at each side and which reserves all its fulness for the front. Still another way of disposing of your metallic cloth is to make a long sheath corseage fitting tightly over the hips with a short, wide skirt of filmy tulle. Much as the Spanish dancer mode is in this latter treatment. Nor is it strange that the fashion should be cherished just at present. For there is more than a hint of many present day style factors, among which are to be mentioned the revived vogue of fringe, the Spanish sailor, and the wide brimmed hat from the thirties.
